Supreme Court Upholds Obama Health Care Law

The message of the disappointing Supreme Court decision on the Obama Health Care Law is that elections matter!

Pro-life people must work to replace this pro-abortion president and U.S. Senate with a pro-life president and with pro-life leadership in the Senate.

While the challenges to the law were not based on the life issue, this 5 to 4 decision is a devastating setback for all who believe in the sanctity of life and in the freedoms upon which this country was founded.

The Obama Health Care Law contains multiple provisions that provide authorizations for subsidies for abortion, both implicit and explicit, and multiple provisions which may be used as bases for abortion-expanding administrative actions. This is a sharp departure from decades of previous federal policy under the Hyde Amendment, the Federal Employees Health Benefits program, and other federal programs.

In addition, doctors, hospitals, and other health care providers will be told by Washington just what diagnostic tests and medical care are considered to meet "quality and efficiency" standards.

These standards are specifically designed to limit the funds that Americans may choose to spend on health care so that they cannot keep up with the rate of medical inflation. Treatment that a doctor and a patient deem needed or advisable to save the patient's life or preserve or improve the patient's health -- but which runs afoul of the imposed standards -- will be denied, even if the patient is willing and able to pay for it. In effect, there will be one uniform, national standard of care, established by Washington bureaucrats, that is designed to limit what private citizens are allowed to spend to save their own lives.

This decision makes it absolutely imperative that this law be repealed by the next congress and president. Missouri Right to Life Political Action Committee will work diligently to secure a strong pro-life congress and president committed to repealing this life-destroying legislation.

National Pro-Life Leaders react to Supreme Court Upholding ObamaCare

National Right to Life President Carol Tobias: "All voters who care about the value and dignity of human life must do everything they can to elect Mitt Romney and a Congress who are committed to repeal of ObamaCare. If President Obama wins re-election, it will mean massive abortion subsidies, and it will put the lives of millions at risk through systematic government-imposed rationing of lifesaving medical care."

Family Research Council: "(This) Supreme Court decision will do serious harm to American families. Not only is the individual mandate a profound attack on our liberties, but it is only one section among hundreds of provisions in the law that will force taxpayers to fund abortions, violate their conscience rights, and impose a massive tax and debt burden on American families. The Obama administration has created, for the first time in American history, new federal regulations that toss aside the constitutional right to religious freedom by forcing religious institutions and employers to pay for abortion-causing drugs, contraceptives, and sterilizations. It's now time to replace those leaders who disregarded the constitutional limitations of their authority and the deeply held religious beliefs of their constituents, voting for the government takeover of healthcare."

Alliance Defense Fund: "ObamaCare treats American citizens like subjects. This administration has used health care law to become a dictator of conscience. The court's decision is alarming and deeply wrong. ObamaCare holds your health care hostage and offers no real choice. Either comply and abandon your religious freedom and conscience, or resist and be fined for your faith."

Faith in Action Director Rev. Rob Schenk: "This opinion may allow government to compel people to pay into the system, but it can't compel any of us to abandon our most deeply held convictions. This is a moral, spiritual, and ethical crisis. People of conscience will need to make difficult decisions, including engaging in conscientious objection or even respectful civil disobedience, which may bring painful penalties with it. It's time to be prayerful, brave and strong. From here on we will need help from God and from one another."

Missouri Right to Life Political Action Committees Endorsement Criteria

As the oldest and largest grassroots, single-issue pro-life organization in the state, Missouri Right to Life, through its Political Action Committees (MRL PAC), strives to elect pro-life candidates at the state and the federal levels. By endorsing candidates who meet specific criteria and by rating all candidates, MRL PAC provides the most comprehensive guidance to the pro-life voters of Missouri on which candidates would best advance the cause of life.

MRL PAC endorsements are non-partisan and are based on the following guidelines:

- Pro-life Survey - A candidate must complete an MRL PAC or National Right to Life PAC survey verifying their pro-life position on abortion, euthanasia, human cloning, embryonic stem cell research, and other issues that fall under the purview of MRL.
- Voting record - When a candidate has held office, whether running for the same seat or a different seat, MRL PAC considers up to a four-year voting record to determine a candidate's eligibility for endorsement. The percentage of pro-life votes required for endorsement is determined by MRL PAC and takes into consideration not only the candidate's votes, but also the degree of involvement in advancing pro-life legislation and the importance of specific votes.

However, a vote on particularly egregious legislation can disqualify a candidate from endorsement in spite of an otherwise acceptable voting record. Such is the case this year for candidates who voted for the Missouri Science Innovation & Reinvestment Act (MOSIRA) without protective language during the 2011 special session of the General Assembly.

- Interviews - In some races, members of MRL PAC may conduct a personal interview with a candidate.

MRL PAC will also consider a candidate's history of pro-life activism, public statements, and input from MRL members in a candidate's district.

The PAC believes that an incumbent with a pro-life record running for re-election deserves a single endorsement, but redistricting in Missouri this year has eliminated incumbency status in most races. In races with no pro-life incumbent and where all candidates meet MRL PAC endorsement criteria, MRL PAC will do multiple endorsements.

In a race with two or more pro-life candidates and one or more viable anti-life candidates, or viable candidates whose position is unknown, MRL PAC will likely endorse a single candidate in hopes of avoiding a split in the pro-life vote. MRL PAC also considers the political realities and circumstances of each race.

MRL PAC reserves the right to withdraw an endorsement should there be reason to believe a candidate has been untruthful or has changed a position on life issues. Additionally, MRL PAC believes in giving candidates opportunities to advance the cause of life if they have moved from a less pro-life position to a stronger one.

Primary endorsements made by MRL PAC do not necessarily roll over to General Election races. MRL PAC will release General Election endorsements following the Primary Election.

Columbia Planned Parenthood suspends abortions

The Columbia Missourian has reported that Planned Parenthood (PP) Columbia has suspended abortions indefinitely. This has been confirmed by the 40 Days For Life team which maintains a year-round presence on the sidewalks outside of PP on the days that mothers come for abortion counseling or for procedures.

Planned Parenthood cites the lack of an abortion doctor as the reason for the suspension, something that has been a recurring situation at this facility. The 40 Days For Life team's peaceful, prayerful intercession has saved many babies, and they are again thankful that babies and their mothers, at least for a time, will be spared the tragedy of abortion.

"We have been praising and thanking God since we found this out," said Mike & Kathy Forck, Campaign Directors. "We pray they will not be able to find another doctor to replace the last one."

Inside -- Candidate ratings and endorsements for the August 7 primary election

Excerpts from Baptists for Life Inc., bfl.org

Whatever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus . . . and whatsoever ye do, do it heartily, as to the Lord, and not unto men. ~ Colossians 3:17, 23

When Paul wrote these words, he may not have had voting in mind. As a Roman citizen, he had more privileges than some – to own property, make contracts, marry, and migrate – but the right to vote could be exercised only when in Rome. And it's doubtful he was able to participate in civic life while under house arrest or in prison.

In a sense, his situation was similar to that of many Christians today living under repressive regimes. Although most modern nations hold elections and have universal suffrage, many deny their citizens the ability to vote their consciences.

Those of us, however, who do enjoy free and fair elections mustn't take voting for granted. It's our right and responsibility. For Americans, the "whatever" of Colossians definitely extends to participation in government – voting and beyond.

We all might take a lesson from God's instructions to the exiles in Jeremiah 29:5-7 – to build homes, settle in, plant gardens, marry, raise families . . . and seek the peace of the city wherever we live.

But for whom should we vote? What are the values we can bring to the voting booth that accord with Jesus' name? How can we be sure our votes serve Him and not men?

The best leaders submit to God's sovereignty and acknowledge their need of His help. They know they're accountable to Him and persevere in obedience (see the examples of Israel and Judah's kings). But even the most secular leaders can exhibit qualities that are commended by God in Scripture, ...

Such leaders would assuredly serve the best interests of everyone in the communities, the states, the countries where we live.

Vote pro-life!

What about a candidate's stance on abortion? How important is it, compared to issues such as the economy or the environment?

One could make the case that all issues affect the sanctity of human life, but none is more foundational than the right to life itself. If there is no justice for the most vulnerable human beings, there can be justice for none. Candidates ought not pit "interest groups" against the unborn.

Some say, "If you're really pro-life you'll join the [fill-in-the-blank] cause!" But these are often the same people who refuse to also speak for the unborn. Why should the tiniest of little ones be forced to wait at the end of the line behind those with more money or a louder megaphone? Too many are being killed every day!

Countless times in Scripture God decries the perversion of justice and shedding of innocent blood. He hates violence. Isaiah 59:7-8 describes people who run toward evil and hasten to commit murder and yet foolishly expect to find peace. The way of bloodshed does not yield peace or prosperity.

In Acts 3:14-15, Peter called our Savior the "Prince of life." In their jealousy and rage, the rulers chose to release a murderer and kill the "Author of life" instead! In service to our Prince, when we go to the voting booth, may we all love what God loves and choose life.
